USER STORIES

Thu1930-Dipto-Group4

1. The system should display a home page with functionality such as login/sign-up, about and contact-us. The program must authenticate and authorise users based on user type/role, i.e., admin or customer. You have three types of users: admin user (business owner); publishers and shop owners, who can sell their own books, new books and used books; public users, who can buy, share or sell only used books. User registration for Publishers/Shop owners and Customer: name, address, phone, username and password, ABN if it's a business and relevant information. Users can register themselves and the data must be saved to the database, however if the user is representing a business, the registration would be pending until admin user approve it. There might be some business rules for each user, (talk to your PO)
